March is here and it’s time to celebrate things like St. Patrick’s Day, March Madness and Spring Break. Maybe not as high on your list in March, but still important to River Run homeowners was the annual Homeowners Association meeting which was held on Tuesday, March 4th at the River Run Clubhouse.

Some of the items that were discussed that evening included:
1. Open Board Spots - Four people submitted applications for three open spots. Thank you to those homeowners who turned in your proxies.

2. Updated Rules & Regulations – The final edits are being made to the new version and will be sent to all homeowners in the mail for their review before being finalized. The board encourages your comments on how these can be improved before the final version is filed with the state.

3. Proposed Basketball Court - While no final decision has been made by the Park District, the board has been discussing ways to improve the security at the park regardless of whether a basketball court is built or not.

In closing, I would like to personally thank Peter Scavetta for the past 2 years that he has served as a board member. Peter spent countless hours volunteering his time on the Landscape Committee and Architectural Review Board in order to improve the processes that we have and to try and make the neighborhood an overall better place to live. His presence, commitment and overall desire to make a positive difference will be missed.

Enjoy the warmer days ahead! Hope to see you at the next board meeting!

Pet Tales
By the Naperville Area Humane Society

Summer Camp at
Naperville Area Humane Society

Available to children ages 6 to 12 years, Naperville Area Humane Society's Animals & Us Day Camps teach children about animals while having fun. Subjects range from basic pet care and humane education to animal control, wildlife and potential careers in the animal welfare field. Kids enjoy games, crafts and activities covering a variety of topics. Each camp also gives children the chance to interact with animals at the shelter. Camp is one week long and is offered during the summer.

The registration fee for each session is $125, which includes materials for crafts, a camp t-shirt and a daily snack. There is a $25 cancellation fee. Due to the overwhelming popularity of the summer camp program, we must limit registration to one week per child. Please visit www.NapervilleAreaHumaneSociety.org for dates and details. Registrations will be accepted at the shelter at 1620 W. Diehl Road in Naperville or online starting on Monday, March 17 at 9:00 a.m.

Hi, I'm Mistletoe...

And yes, I know my name is a bit "Christmasy". I'm not attached to that name however. In fact, I wish I could tell people my real name. Some very kind people named me right after I was found abandoned an empty house with two other cats and five dogs right before the holidays. I can be a bit shy at first, but when I make friends with you, I can't get enough love and attention. I am only five years old and can live with cats, dogs, and kids. Please adopt me and you can give me any name you like!

We have many cats just like Mistletoe waiting for their forever homes. From March 1-16, we will highlight these fabulous felines with our March Madness promotion. Their adoption fee will be reduced to only $5. This includes spay or neuter surgery, vet exam, vaccinations, microchip, collar and carrier. Please see NapervilleAreaHumaneSociety.org for photos and descriptions of available animals.
What a Winter!

Cold and snow is beneficial in the garden. The cold may kill some of our insect pests and the snow insulates our perennials. Snow also will provide much needed moisture first thing in the spring. Our gardens should be looking good this year!

However, our heavy snowfall has allowed our rabbit friends more access to trees and shrubs. We have noticed rabbit damage high above the ground level, thanks to snow drifts and piles. Check your trees and shrubs, especially crabapples, fruit trees, burning bush, shrub roses, witchhazel and viburnum. Rabbit damage looks like sharp, neat, almost 45 degree angle cuts, almost as if pruners had been used. They may also nibble away at exposed bark.

The most effective way to keep rabbits from eating is to fence them out. Trees and shrubs can be protected with a ring of quarter inch wire hardware cloth or chicken wire. You can tuck it into remaining snow.

Monitor it as snow melts so that the fencing doesn’t form gaps or collapse. You may have to reset it more than once as we edge into spring. You may also use bird netting to cover a particular specimen plant. Just make sure to tie it around the base so no gaps are evident.

Once the weather warms enough to be outdoors, now is the perfect time to prune woody plants if they bloom in summer. Wait to prune your fragrant viburnums, lilacs, and anything that blooms before Memorial Day until just after they flower. Remember, prune only if necessary to control the size of the plant or to remove dead, crossing or damaged twigs. Opening up the canopy of a tree or the structure of shrubs will allow greater air circulation and reduce fungal disease. Pruning now before leaves appear allows you to clearly see the structure of the plant. Try to enhance the natural shape of the plant when pruning and remember to make cuts just above a branching point or bud. This allows the plant to heal properly and seal the wound. Don’t wait too much longer than March 20th to prune oaks, elms or maples. Oaks and elms should only be pruned while insects are still dormant to prevent the spread of Dutch Elm Disease and oak wilt. Maples often will bleed sap if they are pruned too late in the season.

Join us at The Growing Place on March 29 and 30 at 2:00 p.m. in Aurora for our free Hands on Pruning class! We’ll demonstrate techniques then let you try them out.

Longtime Naperville Resident, Ray Kinney serves as host of a local cable segment, Dine Around Naperville promoting entertainment and dining options in Naperville. A small business owner, family man, and self-proclaimed Foodie, Ray spends quite a bit of time dining out in his favorite place to be – Naperville, Illinois. In this column, Ray will share his insights and opinions on the local dining scene. For a complete listing of Naperville restaurants, check out www.dinenaperville.com

Being a long time Napervillian, I have seen many changes in the years I have called Naperville home, some of them good and some of them not so good. If you live here long enough you find some neighborhood gems, where in fact everyone does know your name... in my part of town, one of those places is Walker's Charhouse located in Naperville Plaza. Located in what used to be a Pizza Hut when I was in high school, this is one of those welcome changes I mentioned. This is also one of my most frequented shopping malls with Casey’s, Oswald’s, Peterson’s Wine Cellar and First Community Bank, you can pretty much get it all at Naperville Plaza.

Walker’s has been around for quite a while, but recently changed hands when a former server, Bryan Werschulz, took the leap into restaurant ownership. The restaurant has been operating since 1994 and has a great welcoming feel from the minute you walk in – we recently dined there on a chilly Monday evening, but the place had a nice crowd of seemingly regulars that new each other and the staff quite well based on the banter we enjoyed.

The dinner menu is not too cumbersome and they stick true to what you expect at a Charhouse – steaks and chops! All of their steaks are 100% Black Angus and hand trimmed in house! I ordered a cocktail from the bar and Paula had a nice glass of Chardonnay as we looked over the menu and the specials. Service is quick and friendly and our server recommended one of their new specials, Pasta a la Walker’s and I gladly obliged. Paula opted for the small filet and baked potato and we each ordered a salad. The salads were excellent as was the warm fresh made bread, something I can’t resist. As our main entrees arrived we chatted with the server about the recent changes and he seemed genuinely excited – even mentioning the special I had ordered has been a big hit. I agree – the perfectly cooked pappardelle noodles were covered with a tenderloin mushroom ragu, all topped with an herb infused Ricotta cheese that perfectly blended all of the ingredients together in one wonderful plate of perfect comfort food. The filet was cooked to perfection for my wife as evidenced by the fact she didn’t offer me any and there wasn’t any left as she cleaned her plate! A very excellent dining experience for sure and the menu has something for everyone including an almond crusted whitefish and bacon wrapped pork tenderloins that had my attention until I read the specials….so many choices, so little time!

Always a good sign when you see families enjoying a meal out together next to an elderly couple who eat at the place daily! The kid menu is very nice and we always see families there enjoying a meal together. Open for lunch and dinner this is one of those places that you bring your kids to and they will be coming back for years.

Spring is right around the corner and we are looking forward to warm weather and more outdoor activities with friends and family at the River Run Club. Goodbye Polar Vortex!

It is still cold outside but we are thinking spring and summer at the clubhouse. We are pleased Chris Warner will be returning as Tennis Director for the 2014 tennis season. If you have not participated in the tennis program, now is the time to check it out. Tennis registration night will be held on Tuesday, March 18th from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity to ask questions and receive all information for the upcoming spring tennis program. You can also sign up for teams, clinics, and private lessons. Just beginning, Chris can provide you with a program that fits your needs. Contact Chris Warner at river_run_tennis@yahoo.com Information for spring tennis is included on page 21 in this newsletter.

River Run Raptors are gearing up for another great season with additional swim clinics this winter. The Raptors offer opportunities with both swim and water polo teams. If you are new to the River Run Club this is a great way to enhance your swimming skills while making new friends. The whole family can benefit from the River Run Raptors as they have an exciting social calendar for all to enjoy. For more information visit the Raptors Website at rrraptors.org.

Don’t forget to change your clocks for daylights saving time on Sunday, March 9. We will all be happy to enjoy the extra hour of daylight.

We appreciate your feedback regarding improvements or repairs you notice at the clubhouse. We are continually trying to improve where we can and repair what is necessary. Together we can keep the River Run Club an exciting and enjoyable place for you and your family to enjoy.

The River Run Club Board of Directors would like to “Thank You” for the opportunity to serve our club membership and raise the bar at the River Run Club!
